

INTERNATIONAL COUNSEL – LEADING US LISTED BUSINESS

£competitive package

Greater London

Cummins is a global engineering leader that designs, manufactures, sells and services engines, power generation systems and related technologies. Headquartered in Columbus, Indiana, the company serves customers in more than 190 countries through its network of 600 company-owned and independent distributor facilities and more than 5,000 dealer locations. An award winning, Fortune 150 employer with sales exceeding $19bn last year, it has well developed plans for further profitable growth.

Cummins is looking to appoint an International Counsel. Reporting to the General Counsel in Indiana, the role will entail leading and managing the legal and company secretarial teams across Europe and the Middle East. Regular travel through the territories will be required.

To take on this role, you are likely to have in excess of 20 years' post qualification experience, gained in an international setting, either through having worked abroad or having counselled large multinational businesses. You will have a broad legal subject matter expertise as well as a proven track record as a visionary and strategic leader, able to inspire others and operate in a complex and matrixed corporate environment. Strong communication and inter personal skills and sound commercial judgement will be a given. The ability to speak another relevant language other than English will also be useful.

This is a truly exceptional opportunity for an ambitious and experienced international lawyer to be part of a successful, innovative business which is proud of its impressive record on corporate responsibility, sustainability and diversity.
