Commercial Lawyer – 2-5 years' PQE*

London - City

Ramsay Health Care is a leading provider of healthcare services both to private and NHS patients and was last year's winner of the prestigious Healthcare Investor Award for "Private Hospital Group of the Year". The parent company is listed in Australia where the business was founded 50 years ago. Today Ramsay Health Care has more than 30 hospitals in the UK and an ever-increasing portfolio of hospitals internationally across Australia, France, Indonesia and Malaysia employing more than 30,000 people and admitting over 1.4 million patients each year.

Due to the continued growth of the business, the UK legal team now seeks an additional lawyer to join the Head Office in central London. Reporting to the Head of Legal, you will be a key member of a small but growing team working closely alongside the UK Executive and other members of the SMT. You will enjoy a predominantly non-contentious, contracts-based workload, with occasional input into corporate matters and some dispute-handling. Whilst previous healthcare experience would be useful, it is by no means a requirement. More important is the ability and desire to work as a genuine team player with the versatility and an aptitude to turn your hand to whatever is thrown at you. Logic, good judgment and a distinctly pragmatic approach are the key qualities required for this role. Whilst some in-house experience would be helpful, candidates looking to make their first move out of private practice will also be considered.

This is a new and exciting role and a fabulous opportunity for a junior lawyer hungry for responsibility and looking to make their mark as part of a growing team within a highly successful business.
