Legal Counsel 3-5 years' PQE* Portsmouth

Babcock is the UK's leading engineering support services organisation with an annual revenue of circa £3bn and over 25,000 employees who design, build, manage, operate and maintain assets that are critical to key public services in the UK and overseas.

An opportunity has arisen for a commercial lawyer to join the Support Services Division, a £1bn annual turnover business supporting customers across multiple sectors including transport and power. Based in Portsmouth, you will report to the Divisional General Counsel. As this is a full-service role, you will be involved in a wide range of activities, including commercial contracts, dispute resolution and compliance.

Whilst we are looking for a confident, resourceful individual who is eager to assume responsibility, this is a great opportunity for you to further develop your skills and commercial acumen in a small but valued team in a FTSE 100 organisation. A solid academic and law firm background are important, so is a strong foundation in contract law. Experience in public procurement and NEC3 contracting would be an advantage.
